LAND BOARD RELEASES 23 SMALL PARCELS OF LAND ON THIS ISLAND

Competition in the drawing for 23 small government homesteads on Oahu was keen at the local and office yesterday and 183 applicants were given numbers for the selection of the land parcels, which will be made Thursday.

Charles A. Christianson was the lucky drawer, having secured Number 1. This entitles him to first choice of any of the 23 lots. Margaret K. Schulmeister drew Number 183 and Judge Thomas B. Stuart secured Number 13. As each of the drawers is entitled to two adjoining lots, Judge Stuart may lose, in the event that the first 11 take two lots each.

The homesteads are situated at Halekolu-Waikolu and Kalaupoko-Waikolu, District of Koolau, Oahu. There were 80 applicants for the six lots at Kalaupoko. District of Koolau, Oahu. The selection of these latter parcels will be made at the court house in Kalaupoko at 9 a. m., Thursday.

The selection of the Oahu homesteads will be made at the office of the land commissioner in the Capitol, Honolulu, and in the event that a holder of a number fails to answer when his number is called Thursday morning, the next in line will assume prior rights. Twelve applications were rejected yesterday and another was filed too late.

The Oahu property is located near Kaneohe and the land has been appraised at from $50 to $75 per acre. The terms of purchase call for 5 per cent down and 10 per cent a year, with interest at 6 per cent. The results of the drawing are shown in the following:
